What would you think if I sang out of tune,
Would you stand up and walk out on me.
Lend me your ears and I'll sing you a song,
And I'll try not to sing out of key. Oh

I get by with a little help from my friends, mm...
I get high with a little help from my friends, mm...
Going to try with a little help from my friends.

What do I do when my love is away.
(Does it worry you to be alone)
How do I feel by the end of the day
(Are you sad because you're on your own)
No I get by with a little help from my friends,
Mm get high with a little help from my friends
Mm gonna try with a little help from my friends

Do you need anybody
I need somebody to love
Could it be anybody
I want somebody to love

Would you believe in love at first sight,
Yes I'm certain that it happens all the time.
What do you see when you turn out the light,
I can't tell you but I know it's mine.
Oh I get by with a little help from my friends
Mm get high with a little help from my friends

Music has a large impact on our everyday lives. From the many different types of music out today to the classics of yesteryear a huge diversity of styles has evolved. Dress, attitude, and leisure time activities are just a few of those things that have been influenced directly or indirectly by music. Music has provided some people with their own private sanctum in which to enjoy themselves, while it has helped others to blend in to groups and meet new people. Whether we realize the effects of music or not, it undeniably has an effect on our friends and our way of life.

FIGHT SONG

We will fight, fight, fight for Courtland.

We will fight for Cougar fame. Go team let's win, let's have victory again.

Fighting for Courtland's blue and silver. Roll over each opponent. Make them know there just one of the rest. Go Cougars, fight Cougars, keep spirits high. Courtland is the best.

Stand up for Courtland High, cheer for Courtland High.
Stand and cheer for Courtland High.

Where Has All the Spirit Gone, Long Time Passing?

Its lunchtime, just another Friday during football season. The band is vigorously belting out songs of inspiration, filling the school with thundering music. The cheerleaders are performing their boisterous routine, trying to raise the spirits of their dining comrades, very few of whom respond to their efforts. It seems that each one is afraid to let go, afraid to yell and cheer and feel pride in their school. Granted, this hasn't been our best football season, but its not about football. Its about a sense of belonging, a sense of community and camaraderie which, hopefully has not been completely lost. Perhaps in future years this spirit will be rekindled in the hearts of the students of Courtland.

"STAND BY ME"

-- Ben E. King

*When the night has come and the land is dark and the moon is the only light we'll see
No, I won't be Afraid, no I won't be Afraid, Just as long as you stand, stand
by me.
So, darling, darling,
stand by me, oh,
stand by me. Oh,
stand, stand by me,
stand by me.
If the sky that we look upon should tumble and fall, or the mountain should crumble in the sea,
I won't cry, I won't cry, no I won't shed
a tear, just as long as you stand, stand
by me.
So, darling, darling,
stand by me, oh,
stand by me. Oh,
stand, stand by me,
stand by me.*

"This Magic Moment" Prom '94

The Junior/Senior Prom was held at the Mary Washington College Ballroom on April 30, 1994. Because the college would not open their doors until the morning of prom many volunteers had to get up early to decorate. Particularly helpful were President Lauren Marcellin and board member Sam Segal. Sam Stange was also instrumental; he and Mrs. Mills constructed the backdrop for the pictures, a moon. The ballroom was decorated in champagne with white and gold accents. This year was Mrs. Lyn Mills first year as Junior Class Sponsor so naturally there were some stressful moments especially in preparation for prom, however, she indicated that "looking out at everyone having such a good time made all the hard work and long hours worth while." -Mrs. Mills. This was also the first year a Prom King and Queen were elected; the honor went to Joey Harrison and Jen Armstrong. Students danced the night away to music of their own selection. All in all prom was truly a "magic moment."

After Prom Party '94

"After Midnight" - Eric Clapton

To help keep students off the road and away from the bottle on prom night, the After Prom Party was held. Students bought tickets for a night of music, food, and fun. The largest attraction was, as usual, the Casino where students played blackjack, Roulette, Craps and Dice. Other attractions included open gym, fortune teller, a tattoo parlor, miniature golf, and others. Students who stayed all night were eligible to win prizes in the drawing. The largest was a $1500 custom installed car stereo system. Many thanks to the parents and teachers who stayed up all night to participate in this event.

"Headed For The Future" --Neil Diamond

Each year in late May, a day is set aside for the Senior Awards Assembly to recognize the achievements of the graduating seniors, and to wish them the best of luck for the future with special honors and scholarships. Many school groups sponsor scholarships for senior members who have made major contributions to the club, class or organization. Several community organizations also recognize, with awards and scholarships, outstanding Courtland students. As the graduates receive their awards, and watch their peers receive theirs, they remember the best parts of their four years here at Courtland and think ahead to the promising future.

HAPPY DAZE

THE SHORT HAPPY MADNESS OF J. T. SPRINGER

Most of us have a tendency to daydream, but sometimes those fantasies can get out of hand. Courtland Theatre Department's 1994 spring play, directed by Mr. Gene Nesbitt, illustrated this point with HAPPY DAZE or THE SHORT HAPPY MADNESS OF J. T. SPRINGER. Phillip Male played the lead role of J. T. Springer, who is a depressed and unpopular teenager escaping the pressures of the real world through vivid daydreams. He creates an ideal world for himself in which he is the most popular guy in school. Eventually he is unable to distinguish between reality and his dreams. As he isolates himself more and more, J. T.'s parents, Julian and Ann Springer (played by Matt Sieracki and Heather Dancer), become very worried. The seriousness of J. T.'s problem is lightened by several comedic interludes such as Mrs. Springer arranging a date for J. T. with the most popular girl in school, Melanie Webster (played by Kristin Oliveri). J. T. is furious, however, because in his world he already has a girlfriend named Julie, who actually represents Melanie. There is also a "weird" guy in his dreams who represents himself. Through this character J. T. finally realizes that being "weird" is special and that even in real life he is special.

Top Left: Julian Springer (Matt Sieracki) and Ann Springer (Heather Dancer) give advice to their son. Top Right: Ratsie Ratsaroni (J. J. Buckley) shows Tom Thomas (Erik Breivik) how to hula-hoop. Bottom Left: J. T.'s family admires him has a baby. Bottom Right: The Stage Crew: (left to right) Laura Holian, Mr. Nesbitt (Director), Layla Huff, Jana Rutkowski, and Jennifer Johansson. Opposite page middle: The teens enjoy themselves at a Sock Hop. HAPPY DAZE was set in the 1950s. Opposite page bottom: Prince Janowski (Ryan Goodrich) and Slick Ferrelli (Jesse Garrido) threaten J. T. (Phillip Male), Ricky Phillips (Justin Bousquet), and Bob Morgan (Danny McBride) for talking to their girlfriends, Delores Prentiss (Mary Richardson) and Loreen Stemple (Jennifer Beland). In J. T.'s dream world he is able to overcome these bullies.

"Future's So Bright I Gotta Wear Shades"

-- Timbuk 3

The graduation ceremony was held on June 17, 1994. Senior class president, Carol Pifer, began the ceremony by welcoming students, faculty, family members, and friends. Next, guest speaker, Bobby Orrock spoke of goals and successes. The opening address was given by Matt Sieracki, followed by the commencement address given by Kathrina Lee. After the distribution of diplomas, the ceremony was concluded with the traditional throwing of the caps.

Immerse yourself in memories. Allow the visions of moments gone by to flood the eyes of your mind, washing away the scenes of reality. Recall the years we've spent roaming the halls teeming with vitality and echoing with the voices of friends. Recount the laughs, those brief moments when the world swayed in the blustering winds of happiness. Recollect the smiles, the sweet lingering moments of contentment and peace. Remember also the tears, the sad times when the dreary world was lit only by the warm love of a friend. Hold fast to these memories lest they be lost amid the jumbled visions of today.

"They've always been there for me to talk to when I need someone to lean on." --Demetria Wormley

"My friends give me support by building up my confidence and self-esteem and making me a better person." --Carl Eden

"They're Over[board] and Self-Assured" -Dirvana

If you happened to swing by Ms. Mastin's room on any Tuesday after school you would have witnessed a most unusual phenomenon, for in that room the Senior class officers and board conduct their meetings. By some miracle, the reins of power were placed in the hands of Danny McBride, Phillip Male, Justin Bousquet, Kenny Ellinger, and Matt Grimes. From their headquarters every Tuesday afternoon, these guys make the decisions that move the senior class.

"We are the most innovative officers that our class has had so far." --Justin Bousquet

"We will leave our mark on this school. We don't want anyone to forget the Class of 1995 and its officers."

"TOO MUCH TIME ON MY HANDS" --STYX

Ask most seniors what they do in their spare time and they probably will tell you they don't have any. That is if you define spare time as time during which one isn't doing anything. Seniors are always busy, whether with sports, drama, SCA, and other school related activities, or the ever important job. Of course, there are also parties to go to and friends to hang around with, not to mention time spent with their families. The truth is seniors have no spare time, but perhaps it's just as well because even they need to sleep sometime.

"I work and sleep."

--Dustin Folden

"The End of the Road" --Boyz II Men

Four years spent in one place can leave a person with quite a bit of fondness for it, even if that place is school. Although many seniors won't admit it, probably all will leave something they'll miss when they graduate. It could be a special teacher, the friendly figure of Mr. Pickett, or maybe the friends they might never see again. But there will be something left here which, though relegated to the cluttered drawer of old memories, can still be taken out once in a while to be savored time and time again.

"Into the Great Wide Open" --Tom Petty

"Into the great wide open, a [senior] without a clue." Hopefully Tom Petty's predicament won't be shared by many seniors, though the future is a great enigma for most of them. From apprehensions about college and leaving home, to larger gnawing fears about not finding a niche in society or not experiencing life to the fullest, seniors are constantly plagued with worries. Perhaps if they, like Thoreau, could learn to "keep [their] accounts on [their] thumbnails" and concentrate on living in the present, they might be able to push aside some, if not all, of their worries.

"Getting killed on the football field by the big guys."

--Johnathan Edwards

"Being out on my own and not having friends and family around to guide me."

--Amanda Stabile

'Come on Baby Light my Fire''

--The Doors

Most members of the Senior class were born in 1977. In this year, Jimmy Carter was inaugurated as President. In July, New York City had a major blackout which left 25 million people without electricity for two days. In August, Elvis Presley, one of the country's most important musical figures, died suddenly at his home in Nashville. Also in this year a Pan Am jet colided with a KLM jet, killing 582 people. On a lighter note, in sports, the Oakland Raiders with famous running back, O.J. Simpson, defeated the Minnesota Vikings.

Undaunted by the largest number of new members in the history of Courtland, NHS treasurer Troy Gwartney (bottom left) presents a speech on Scholarship at the formal induction ceremony. Bottom Right: President Sharon Reavis and Vice President Clara Moulton prepare to light the candles of the new inductees, symbolically spreading the high ideals of the Honor Society.

Homecoming '94

lot of anticipating and planning goes into planning Homecoming.

The 1994 Homecoming dance was held on Saturday, October 22.

The dance was held in the commons area which was decorated in silver, black, and purple. The night before at the Homecoming game, Danny McBride and Jaclyn Harrison were crowned king and queen. Thanks go out to the SCA and others who helped plan this special event. Middle: Representatives of the junior class, Travis Early and Alison Burke take their much deserved ride around the football field. Top Left: The co-chairs of Homecoming, Marschelle Bowler, Chrissy Lucy, and Erica Robinson enjoy the product of their many long hours of thought and preparation. Bottom Left: Jesse Garrido and Stacy Cowan smile for the camera in the midst of dancing the night away.

"Coming to America"

--Neil Diamond

This year at Courtland High School we have graciously opened up our arms to several foreign exchange students. These students have come here from a plethora of homelands including the Czech Republic, Germany, France, Japan, and Slovakia. These students all like different things about the United States ranging from the educational system to the music to the scenery. Some of these students would like to stay in the United States, like Jan Svrcek, who wants to attend Gallaudet University. Jan Majer-Leonhard, who is originally from Frankfurt, Germany, likes this area because he says that everything is cheap here and there is always something to do. These students have made many new friends such as Nora Lehmann who likes to hang out with Clara Moulton, Erica Ventura, and Jerry Knouff. One thing that Guillaume Quetier likes about the U.S. is that the school day ends much earlier than it does in his home near Paris, France. The impact on the total lives of these individuals because of this experience will be immeasurable. The lessons that they have learned about the different life-styles of people around the world will make them much more appreciative of others' morals and values.

"Those Lazy Hazy Crazy Days of Summer"

--Nat King Cole

While some kids are working or hanging out with friends, others are training for their upcoming seasons. In most sports, going to camp is not mandatory but most coaches encourage their athletes to go to camps. Summer camp is hard work but most people agree that it is a worthwhile experience. Not only do you learn skills, you get to know your fellow teammates better. Steve Quattlebaum, who went to running camp, says "You get to meet other runners and talk about more than just running." Jessica Simpson and Chrissy Lucy, Winter Varsity Cheerleaders, state that "Being a small squad isn't what matters, it's really how we all work together." All in all summer camp is a memorable experience.

"Donkey Serenade"

--Allan Jones

A donkey basketball game was held here at Courtland on February 16, 1995. Four brave teams took part in a game of basketball with a strange twist. They had to ride donkeys around the court and stay on the challenging animals long enough to make a shot and earn points for their team. The four teams were composed of members of the yearbook staff, the debate club, the faculty, and the field hockey team. Two hilarious games were played to determine who would play in the championship game. Team members struggled to stay on and maintain control of the well-trained donkeys. A special intermission show, the "Lady Godiva Races," in which guys dressed up as cheerleaders, was also used to entertain the spectators. The yearbook team won the championship game against the debate team. Overall, the donkey basketball games were amusing and successful at raising funds for the After-Prom Party.

DAZED AND

"Ohhhkaaay!" Granted, once in a while a person has to unwind a little bit, but some of these people seem to be taking that a bit too far. I mean hey, taking a nap during class once in a while is all right but on top of the lockers? And what about that old, non-topical bald guy napping on the job. Truth is, sometimes the pressures of school are just too much and people have to loosen up. If you've ever felt like this, don't worry, "Its fixin to be a lot better man." Slater

"You're Never Fully Dressed Without A..."

--Original cast; Annie

The fashion at Courtland for the school year 94-95 was basically casual and comfortable. Still in style are flannel shirts loosely worn with baggy jeans. In addition to the jeans students have been wearing large tee shirts with Peace Frogs, Rusty, and Stussy logos. The variety of shoes range from last years Berkinstock sandals to this years Airwalks, Converse All-stars, Pumas, and adidas etc... On the girl's hands and fingers it is not a surprise to see rings on every finger and fancy painted nails. Other accessories include small backpacks worn instead of purses. Even though some of last years styles are still worn this year, new styles are always appearing and you never know what you will see next.

Courtland's Award Winning One-Act:

Deception Most Foul

Murder They Wrote! This year's one act play, Deception Most Foul, was written by Danny McBride, Justin Bousquet, and Phil Male. The play won second place at the District competition and first place at Regionals. This was the first play Mr. Nesbitt had taken to States in several years and certainly the first ever to be written and performed by Courtland students. Essentially a mystery/comedy, the play parodies a play competition at which several people are found murdered. Although not murderers, one of the acting troupes has been sabotaging all of the other groups in to insure a victory for themselves, but when bodies are discovered, they realize that they must find the real perpetrator before they become prime suspects. As the plot unfolds it becomes evident that the murderers are the Host of the festival (Justin Bousquet) and his lover, Beth (Sharon Reavis), who have plotted to kill her husband Roger (Jesse Garrido) and anyone else who tries to stand in their way. As the Host (Justin) and his lover (Sharon) prepare to execute all the other characters, Danny McBride saves the day with an elaborate rouse that includes a description of vengeful creatures from the dead coming back after their killers. Just as he finishes speaking, another acting troupe walks in, looking like the living dead since Miles had sabotaged their bus, causing it to wreck. Needless to say, the Host and Beth are frightened out of their wits and flee for their lives.

Right: Miles (Danny McBride) and Julian (Phil Male) search for clues which could lead to the capture of the murderer. Bottom right: Shocked actors and officials gape in horror at the bodies of the first two victims. Unknown to all, the perpetrator stands in their midst. Below: Floyd (Troy Gwartney) removes the body of the singing janitor (Mike Ochs), the last trace of foul play.

The players went on strike in August and a month later the owners voted to cancel the remainder of the regular season, including the playoffs and the World Series. Middle: It was called the trial of the century. The trial of O.J. Simpson. He was accused of brutally murdering his ex-wife, Nicole Brown Simpson, and her friend, Ronald Goldman. Top Right: At 31, Jerry Rice had the National Football League record for career touchdowns. And then, the 10-year pro with the San Francisco 49ers became the league's all-time touchdown scoring leader. Bottom Left: Several hundred thousands people arrived at Saugerties, N.Y. for Woodstock '94. From folk music to heavy metal, the weekend concert was filled with music almost 24-hours a day. Bottom Right: One critic called their music "pseudo grunge", but Stone Temple Pilots didn't let that bother them. Even while previous album "Core" was still on the charts, they made it to the Top 10 with "Purple."

"Contagious"

--Whispers

AS THE YEAR PROGRESSES SENIORS GET INFECTED WITH THE WELL-KNOWN DISEASE CALLED SENIORITIS.

Every year the teachers and underclassmen see it happening. This disease spreads quickly. By April, the entire Senior Class has caught the disease. Senioritis infects only Seniors and causes them to become obsessed with graduation day. Letters of acceptance from colleges bring Seniors great joy and relief that they will soon be out of high school, but little do these Seniors know, they have four more years of harder work ahead.

'It's My Job'

--Jimmy Buffett

Many students at Courtland have after school and weekend jobs which take up a lot of their free time. Jobs often reflect the interests of the people who choose them. A large number of students work at their favorite stores in the mall. It is a major concern for many teachers and adults that students' grades suffer due to working an excess amount of hours. The students, however, feel that having a job is worth the extra time and effort to have spending money and to promote their independence.

When students turn sixteen and get their license there is nothing more exciting than getting their first car. When they first get their car they want everyone to know it is theirs so what better than a personalized license plate to show it off. Anything from your name and year of graduation to personal things that no one but you understands. Many student here at Courtland have these personalized license plates, but they are not the only ones. Many teachers also display them on their cars. Some personal plates even show school spirit.

Mr. Koch's car displays the license plate telling everyone he is a band director. Kaley Ray has the license plate stating her nickname. This license plate, obviously a teacher's, is displayed on Mr. Miller's Eagle Talon. Charlie Driest's license plate is the painting "Stary Night" by VanGough. Kenny Ellinger's plate depicts the name of the drummer for the group RUSH. The "CHS CAB" belongs to Mrs. Driest. This plate is shared, along with the car, by twins Ginger and Jennifer Avery. Jessica Simpson's license plate shows that she can't make up her mind about anything.

The Varsity Baseball team had an outstanding season and went all the way to become 1994 Battlefield District Champs. Their season started out with a 6-1 victory over Louisa which was the beginning of a 13 game winning streak. With an overall record of 15-5. The key players were Nate Keranen, Mike Darmour along with All-District performers Jeff Kepler, Ben DeBruhl, Andy Nelson, Tim Iddings, Jason Olge, Sean Roop and Danny Angus. John Snyder was selected 1st team All-District and All-Region for pitching and designated hitting. "This group worked hard, played hard, and we had a lot of fun." reported coach Rick Holcomb. Their season ended with a big 10-1 victory over Orange.

The JV softball team worked very hard all season towards success, however it was not an easy journey. The team was not without their successes, though, with many strong key players and the help of both Coach Farine and Coach Hall. Cyndi Coleman had her first Grand Slam, and many players had numerous homeruns. Key players included Jessica Hardyman, Shannon Kane, Jen Anderson, Chaddie Rodriguez, and Gip Lansden.

The Varsity softball team had a very productive season last year. They had an impressive record, having won 10 games and beating Orange in the last game of the season to advance to the playoffs where they lost to Chancellor by only one run. Key players were Kristina Sublett who was named All District pitcher, Heather Gore, Stacey Imler, Emily Torres, and Michelle Sousa.

Left: Covering the plate, Heather Gore makes the tag at home. Middle: Attempting to grab the lead runner as she slides into third base, Michelle Sousa keeps control of the ball. Far Right: At her short stop position, Amanda Stabile awaits the next play.

The Boy's Track team was led by Brian Conner and Travis Early. Brian, the MVP from the Fluvanna Invitational won the 3200 at the Battleground District meet. Another District champ was Travis Early in the 1600. He then went on to the State meet to place second in the 1600.

The girl's track team had a record -breaking season with five girls qualifying for the State meet. Clara Moulton broke the school record in the 800 meter with a time of 2:25.9 and the mile relay team broke the regional record with a time of 4:09.5. The state qualifiers were Tene Wilson in the triple jump, Clara Moulton in the 800 and mile relay, Nyquilia Cherry and Chantay Richardson in the 200, 400 and mile relay and Eileen Smith in the mile relay. Receiving the MVP award was Nyquilia Cherry and the Most Incentive Award went to Chantay Richardson.

Last spring, Courtland had a girls soccer team for the first time. Many girls tried out, and making the team was tough. But when the team was formed, the girls worked hard to learn the plays and get ready to compete. They focused on working together as a team. Team standouts were Meg MacDonald who was voted Most Valuable Player, Stephanie Carl and Sam Segal, who led the team in scoring. The girls and the coaches are looking forward to future seasons where they aspire to win more games and grow stronger as a team.

The Courtland Mens Soccer team. This team is all about going out everyday and trying to work a little harder than the year before and reach a few more goals. This past year the team accomplished a feat that no other Courtland soccer team had before; they beat the Chancellor soccer team. The Cougars won the Chancellor Challenge Tournament at the beginning of the year to get off to a good start. With Ryan Newell leading the defense and Mike Sweazey, Rick Feierabend, Matt Guido, and Nathan Dunk leading the offense the team was strong on both ends of the field. One of the highlights of the season was beating J.M. to claim the first Battlefield District title since 1985. They headed into the Regional playoff tournament but there they lost against Charlottesville in the first round. The team's final record was 10-2-3.

This past years' cross country teams enjoyed successful seasons, receiving several team and individual honors. The mens team capped off an undefeated season in dual and tri-meets by repeating as Battlefield District champions. They also had strong showings in several invitationals with two second place finishes and one first place finish. Brian Conner and Travis Early led the team to a third place finish at the regional meet and a seventh place finish at the state meet. Jen Smith and Clara Moulton led the girls team, finishing fifth and eighth place respectively at the district meet and moving on to the regional meet. At the regional meet Jen Smith placed in the top twenty. The teams look forward to strong seasons next year.

With only six seniors on a team of 22, the Lady Cougar field hockey team was a very young one. Although the players were young, they were not inexperienced; some had even played since their eighth grade year. Finishing with a 7-1-6 record the team had a winning season that was both satisfying and rewarding. The Lady Cougars qualified to play in Districts because they tied for fourth place with Culpeper, but because of the pick for ties at the beginning of the season Culpeper went to the tournament instead. Despite this great disappointment the Cougar hockey team still enjoyed a great season and are looking forward to an even better season next year.

The Courtland J.V. football team had a tough season due to the fact that they lost many players to the varsity team. They started the season with a 20-6 victory over King George. The key players were K.T. Jones, Brian Brooks, Anthony Wallace, Mike Donnelly, Jason Dunn, and Buddy Saunders. The last two games of the season were big victories. The Cougars beat Culpeper 21-10, and Orange 16-12. The Cougars look forward to a successful season next year.

The Courtland Fall Cheerleaders worked hard to support the football team and the girls basketball team. Their hard work started with two weeks of strenuous tryouts. The girls had to learn numerous cheers, chants and dances. They were constantly evaluated during the two weeks by the coaches and seniors. Then the last night the girls went before cheerleaders from a local college and were asked to do specific cheers that the judges randomly selected. In any type of weather our cheerleaders were always cheering for our teams and getting the crowd involved.

This year's Varsity basketball team had history-making success. After capturing third place in the Battlefield District, they advanced all the way through to the Regional semi-finals on March 3rd, 1995. On the way they defeated such strong teams as R.E. Lee High School, which had a seven year undefeated home record. Wins like those couldn't have come easy unless you had players like J.T. Nino, Chuck Markley, Adam Gentry, Travis Seale, and Shane Brooks. Three of these outstanding players were recognized for their incredible skills with District honors including Adam Gentry--1st Team All District, Chuck Markley--2nd Team All District, and J.T. Nino--Honorable Mention.

This year, the Varsity Basketball team went farther than ever before. For the first time in Courtland Basketball history, Coach Kotulka and his team went to the Regional Tournament. On the way, they played what Coach Kotulka called "the game of a lifetime." After an incredible four periods, the Cougars went on to play their hardest against Caroline for three overtimes before losing by a score of 79-89. Their overall record was 17-10. They had two Regional wins against Culpeper, which was the first time ever beating them at Culpeper, and beat R.E. Lee which had a previous record of 68 straight home wins. Their only loss was to Warren County by a close score of 55-58. After such a successful season with the most wins ever in this tournament, there are high hopes for next year's team as well.

Running outside in the winter is not very appealing to many people, but to the dedicated athletes of Courtland High School it is a chance to get in shape for spring sports and the opportunity for some competition. For the first year ever, a Battlefield District track meet was held at the indoor track facilities at Fork Union Military Academy. The top six places then advanced to the State Meet. At the district meet, the boy's team placed second overall and had many individual champions including Rick Feierabend, Charlie Driest, Travis Early, and Brian Conner. Placing first for the girl's team was Chantay Richardson, Nyquilia Cherry and Clara Moulton. Both teams had an exciting season placing in many meets and is expecting to come back strong next year.

The gymnastics team had an excellent season this year. They had many important wins, including a regular season victory over Spotsylvania. The team placed second in district competition. Then, they placed third in regional competition. The gymnasts also went undefeated in dual meets. Key team members included Stephanie Mager, Natasha Gibbs, Courtney Boiler, Kristen Wade, and Tessa Knouff. Stephanie Mager placed first overall on the balance beam at the regional meet. With only one gymnast graduating this year, the team is sure to be a strong presence in competitions again next year.

Sports are an integral part of the lives of many Courtland students. From the fans who go to the games to the players who sweat it out for enjoyment, almost everyone is affected by sports. The determination and dedication of team members pays off when players and coaches feel the satisfaction of a successful season. Lasting friendships among teammates are also formed as a result of cooperation and teamwork throughout many challenging situations. The lessons that are learned about teamwork set the stage for cooperation in these students' everyday lives. The issue of wins and losses loses its importance as long as everyone that is involved is having fun. Sports are a rite of passage for many people. The athletes find out if they have what it takes to work hard and stick it out to reach the goals that they set for themselves.

Ode to I.L.T.

--Alissa Ellis

My favorite class has got to be Undeniably I.L.T.

Of all the classes offered in school
This one somehow tends to rule
Above all others. I can't explain
The experiences we as students gain
We rarely talk or catch some "z's"

Very simply because it is
An hour and a half of pure delight
I go to bed thinking every night
About how much I have to learn From Mr. Miller and Mrs. Mann each in turn

The best of lessons they prepare to teach

Our hearts and minds they often reach

So everyday we tend to gain
A brand new "wrinkle in the brain."

ILT is a fun combination of American History and Advanced English 11. Students discover new relationships between literature and historical periods. This year, the class has read great novels such as Hawthorne's The Scarlet Letter and Stowe's Uncle Tom's Cabin and discussed the impact of these literary works on American society. In October, the group of juniors took a field trip to downtown Fredericksburg, where they visited landmarks such as Kenmore and the Apothecary Shop. This spring, the class plans to take another trip to Washington, D.C., where they will visit the American History Museum. The class is interesting because the teachers, Mr. Miller and Mrs. Mann, find innovative ways to display the connection between literature and history.

Brian,

In the Desert, you came into our life, a bouncing baby boy.
The look on your mother's face when you were born was obviously pure joy.

At three and four, you and your Mom went together to her school.
You spent your days with her and her friends learning animal care and rules.

At six, you moved to Hawaii with us to live beside the beach.
It seemed to you at that wee age that the whole world was within your reach.

In Okinawa at the age of nine,
you learned about a different place.
You saw strange things and learned the culture of a different race.

Back in the desert for one more tour,
you had grown lots by eleven.
We sent you to Catholic school to learn about reading, math, and heaven.

At twelve, we came to Virginia and with a smile upon your face.

You said you wanted to start and finish high school in the same place.

You've had four years at Courtland High and I think you've done your best.
We are proud of you for all you've done, you've put yourself to the test.

From a small baby who could not survive without your Mom and I.
You are now a man going into the world with challenges up to the sky.

I know in my heart and in my soul, as you face each and every test.
You will face them head on and walk away from them, as always, a success.

Congratulations On Your Graduation

With Love, Mom, Dad, and Adam
